Public Hearing

Budget – Mayor Trulock stated the proposed budget for FY 2021-2022 was essentially similar to last year's budget, which we were looking good on. He informed that we were not anticipating making any large purchases as there is not a need that we know of. Councilman Gainous asked if we should expect a price increase from Ray Callaway, the Contractor that does the City mowing. The Mayor stated that Callaway told him that he did not anticipate an increase any time soon. Those present agreed that if Mr. Callaway proposed an increase due to the rising cost of fuel and equipment maintenance, they would discuss it at that time. All agreed he was doing an excellent job. There was no public participation during the public hearing.

There were no other questions or comments about the budget.

Jim Sellers made a motion to approve the Mayor's proposed budget as presented. Jimmie Laing seconded the motion. Gainous, Sellers and Laing voted in favor. Motion carried.

Adjournment- Motion to adjourn at 6:24 PM by Jimmie Laing, seconded by Trey Gainous. All present in favor. Motion carried.
